SONS OF WILSON

Sons of Wilson, still undaunted,
Banners to the sky are flaunted,
Daring hearts and hands are wanted,
Onward to the flight!
Sons of Wilson, never yielding,
Swords of truth and courage
wielding,
Name of honor ever shielding,
Battle for the right!
Tear the false asunder,
Trample foemen under,
Let valor fly in all the sky,
And viture speak in thunder,
Sons of Wilson, School of glory,
Make her name live on in story,
Let the echoes ring back bravely:
Dear old Wilson High.

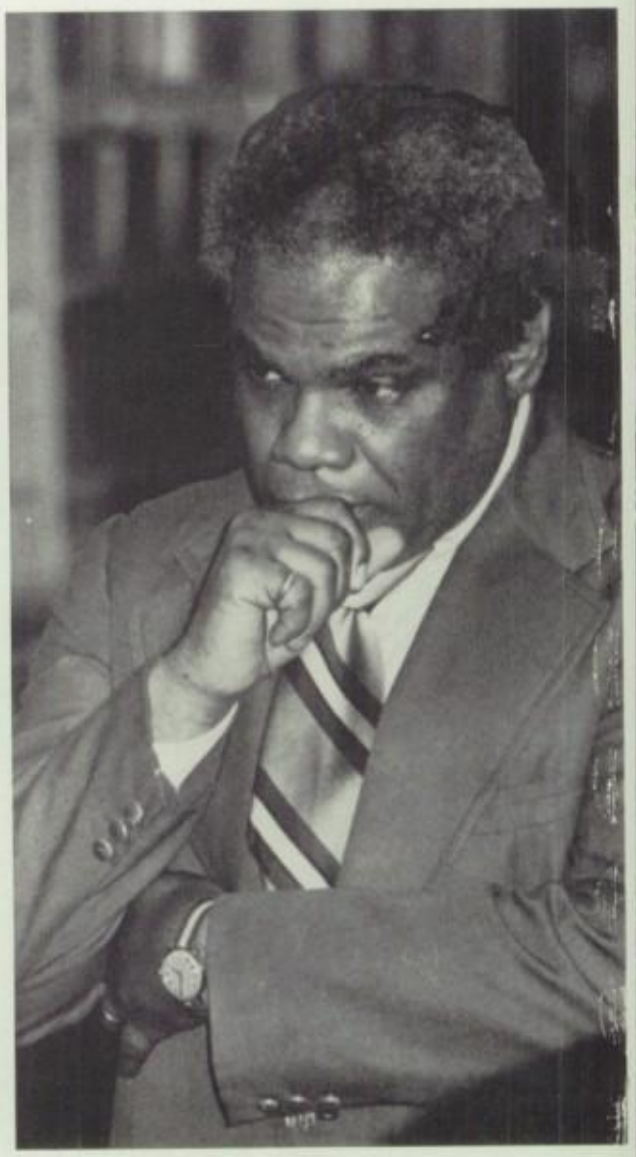
Homecoming 1980

Dedication



The class of 1981 wishes to pay tribute to a man whose arduous labors of eleven years at Woodrow Wilson have enriched ours, as well as our predecessors high school years. During his years as principal of Wilson, there was a very diverse group of people with whom he had done a skillful job of unifying. Therefore, it is fair to say that his accomplishments were great. His personal involvement and sincerity have made knowing him truly a pleasure. His copious friendships with Wilson's students will be everlasting. With these warm thoughts, we dedicate the yearbook to Mr. Maurice A. Jackson.

Reggie is one of the few young guys who does not seem to have a problem with their hands. Have a nice summer and stop that writing!

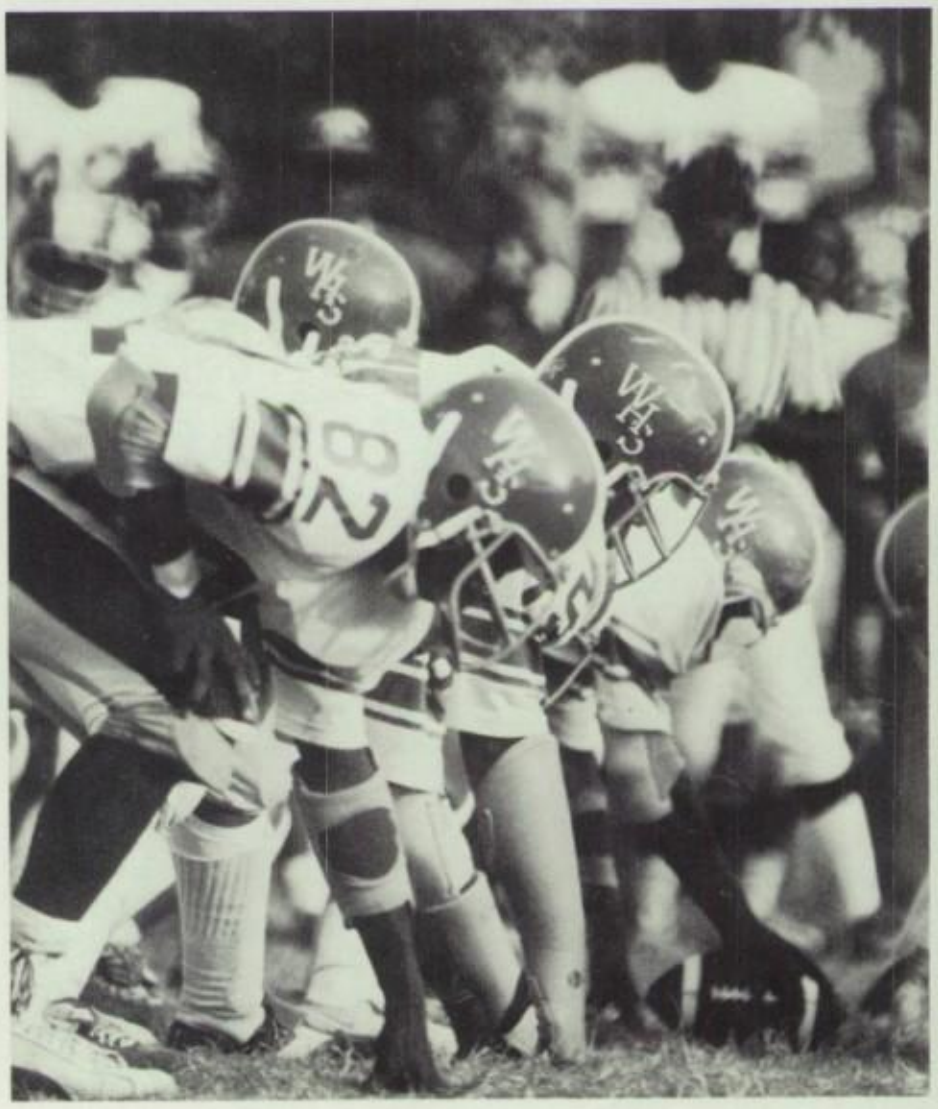
Wilson Exclusive
Amy Pays a Visit

On December 11, Amy Carter visited Wilson with her classmates from Hardy Middle School. Amy visited the jewelry making class, the library, the pool, a biology room, a typing class, the field-house, and a ceramics class. All in all, Amy was quite impressed with Wilson.

The Thrill of It All



Homecoming '80

Now the football team
Was put to the test
They were up against Ballou
Who would give them no rest.

The knights put the first
Score on the board
And as angry tigers,
Wilson's fans roared.

The fighting tigers were determined
Not to be beat
For they kept their fans forever
On their feet.

To win the most votes for
The title of the school
Brigette and Tracy
Were not to be overruled.

Homecoming King and Queen
For the day they would be.
And Brigette and Tracy
Were as proud as could be.

The tempo set was not the way
The tigers wanted the game played.
But Ballou managed to get ahead
And there they stayed.

So victory by the score
Was not the Tigers that day.
But in their spirit
Victory came their way.

For during that game
A lot of emotions were mixed
As Wilson fell to Ballou
Eighteen to six.

Antonio Sturgis

Homecoming Week

— On Friday, back to Childhood Day brought to Wilson dolls, diapers, and lollipops.
— Monday brought us a day off in view of Columbus Day.
— Tuesday, Dallas Day, brought cowboy hats and boots.
— There were pig tails, khakis, black and whites on Wednesday, Preppie Fifties Day.
— Pins, buttons, and wild hair-dos ruled Punk Rock Day.
— Naturally, green and white flowed on Tiger Spirit Day.

Homecoming week proved to the entire Wilson community that at times Wilsonites have tremendous school spirit. We had a week of fun-filled activities during which a good number of people participated. Students, friends, parents, faculty and administrators were all here. Most bore buttons, pom-pons, or megaphones. Before and during the game, the electricity could be felt throughout. Even after the game that we lost was over, that homecoming feeling lingered heavily in the air. If this feeling were translated into words it would have said, "We are proud of our team and of our school."

Junior Kaz Krochmal took his life on December 3, 1980. It came as a shock to the Wilson student body. The junior class and Student Government collected money from the Wilson students and faculty that was given to Kaz's church, St. Columbia's Episcopal, in his name.

Kaz was active in Wilson's Computer Club, Concert Choir, and Ski Club.

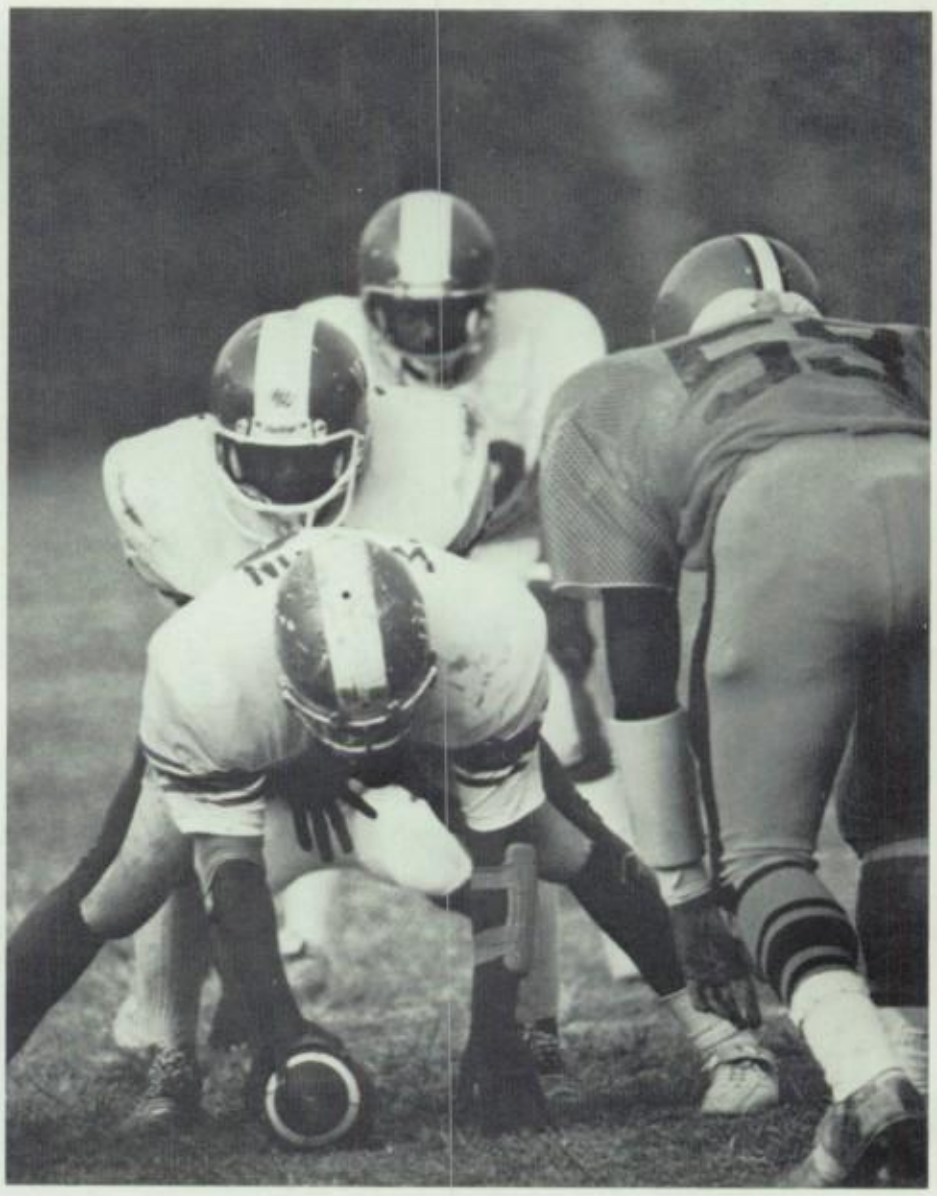
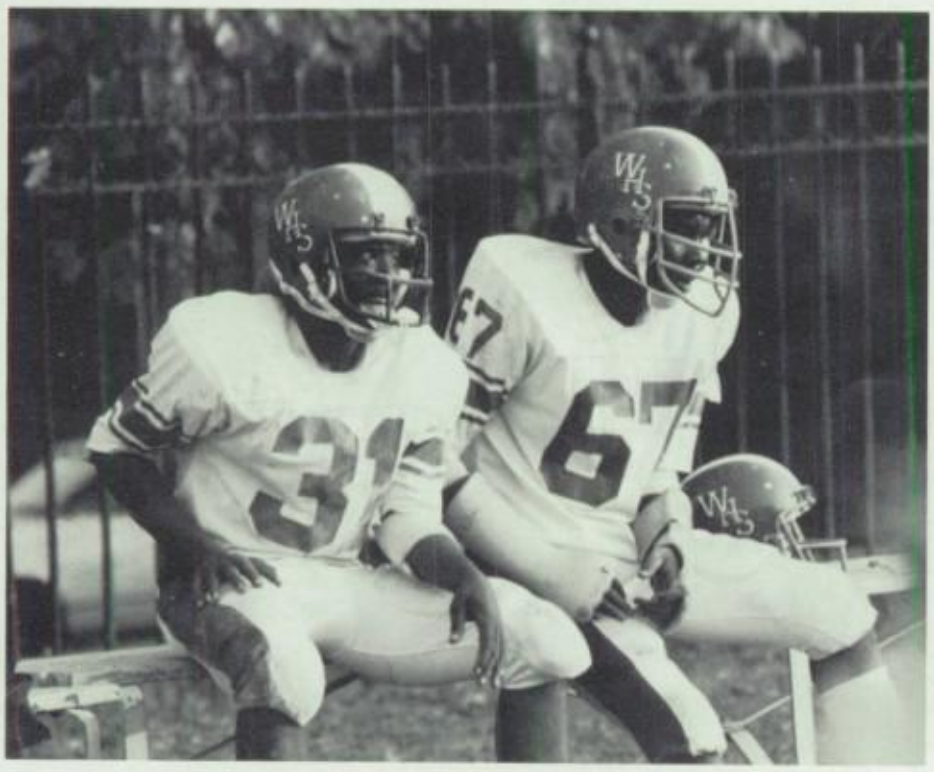
Tiger News

The Tigers hopes of recovering from a 12-0 half-time deficit against Ballou were given a lift late in the third quarter when Kenneth Clark ran 35 yards to score Wilson's first touchdown. The score was upset when the Ballou defense trapped Wilson's quarterback, Jerome Kennedy. After Ray Brown rambled to a first down at the 26 yard line, Kennedy was intercepted.

The Tigers ended the non-league play 0-3, with losses to Georgetown Prep, Lackey, and Gonzaga.





Defensive Rondell Bradford repeatedly broke through the Bell line to block four punts as Wilson shut out Bell.

Fullback John Beverly provided the offensive punch for Tigers, scoring on runs of two and four yards in the second half. Dwayne Robinson passed from John Carpenter.

Calvin Cade completed the scoring with a 31 yard field goal in the final period.

Dear Reggie;

Though I have known you for many years before we started going to high school and sharing lockers! I have grown closer to you through this school year. Although we're first cousins this was a great chance to grower closer in just plain friendship. I know this chance will bring us and our family relationship closer. Love Class of '82

Tigers Will Tigers

I, Adaku Ahaghotu, will my ability to get along with almost anyone to my brothers and sisters.

I, Candi Boney, will to Therisa Crooms the ability to carry the girls' basketball team.

I, Jacque Alston, will to Melvin Prince II all my jeans and tennis shoes.

I, James Byrd, will to the coach Moses a defensive and offensive line.

I, Robin Alston, will my respect and dignity to all upcoming seniors.

I, Calvin Cade, will my high top cleats to Jason Alston.

I, Micheal Benjamin, will all my speed to the future track team.

I, Marquita Curry, will all my cheering skills to the future cheerleaders.

I, Marshall Davis, will to everybody graduating with me much success.

I, Carla Dickens, will my smile to all gloomy people at Dulson High. (Barry Macon)

I, Charles Harris, will my braces to trade fair so I can pick up some money.

I, Timothy Jackson, will my athletic ability to all upcoming athletes.

I, Tonio Jennifer, will my fantastic, super, and great modeling skills to Dion Brown.

I, Ronnetta Lawson, will my height and good looks to Patrina Kennedy.

I, Tonya Prophet, will my ex-friend Timothy Jackson to Michelle Turner.

I, Latonya Rajah, will to the next Pom-pon Co-captain the strength it takes.

I, Dwyane Robinson, will to all the lovely females the ability to carry on without me.

I, William Satterwhite, will my cousin my harem of ladies.

I, Lori Shipman, will to Nana Inoussa my strength to diet.

I, Adrienne Slaughter, will my Jr. Miss title to a prominent deserving senior girl.

I, Carol L. Smith, will my ski jacket to the thug that stole it.

I, Antonio Sturgis, will to all persons 5'5 and under great determination and courage.

I, Adriene Smoot, leave to Mrs. Hunter my pom pons and capezeos.

I, Mabel Worthy, will to Mr. Jones the knowledge to pronounce my name correctly.

I, Chris Truitt, will all my crazy antics and humor to all future seniors — they'll need it.

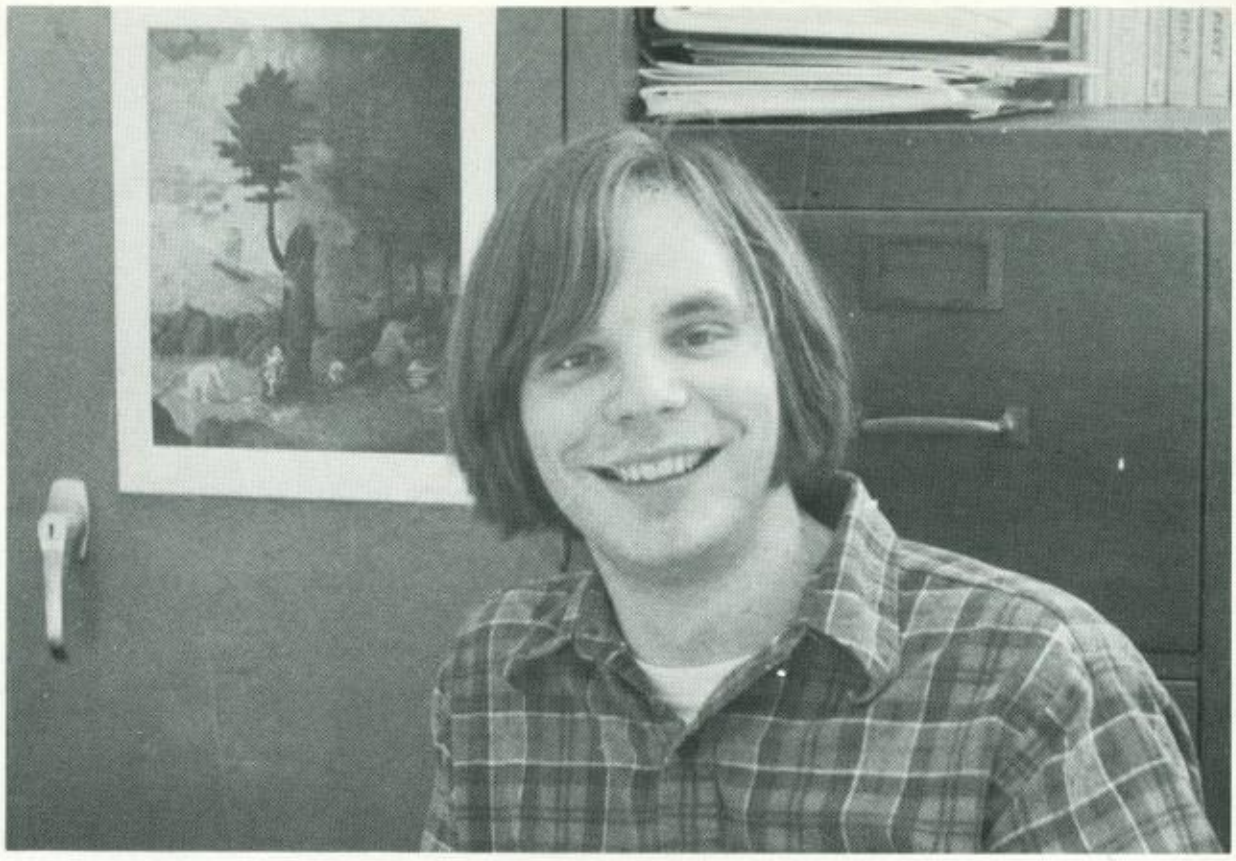
When was the last time you stopped — and looked around — to see what is here — right now?



It was the best of times, it was the worst of times.

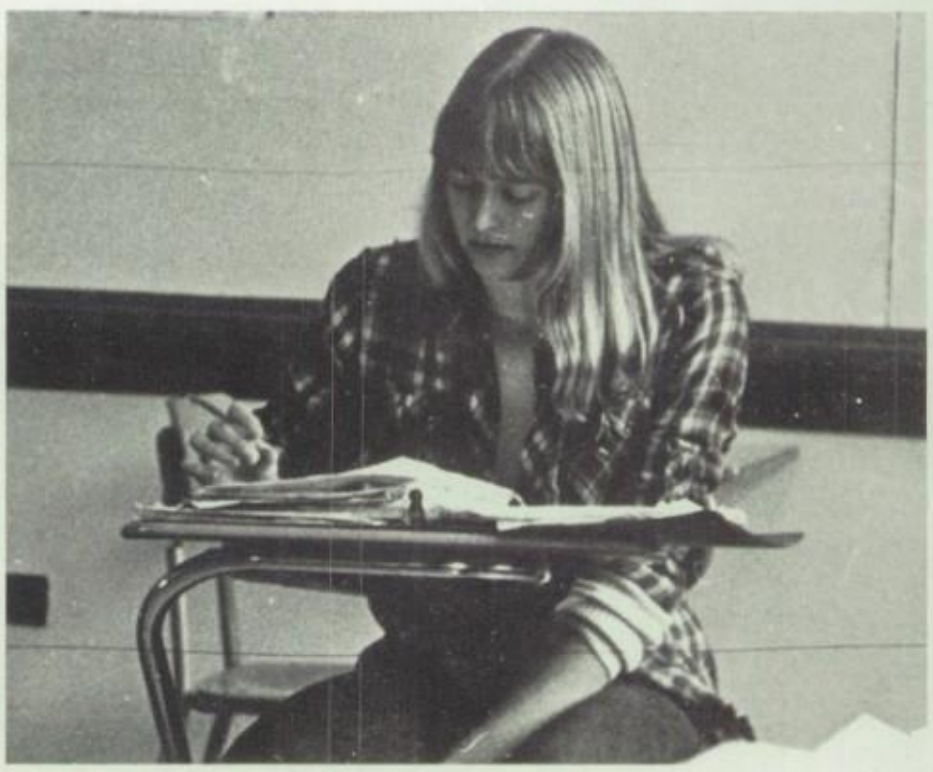
"SMILE"

Times have been spent cautiously.
Times have been spent dreamingly.
Times have been spent foolishly
and wisely.
Remember yesterday's memories;
Tomorrow's yet to be made . . .

Watch closely. We've only just begun.



"Now the real fun begins"

Adrienne Smoot: How do you spell relief?
Latonya Rajah: G-R-A-D-U-A-T-I-O-N.
Marcia Waring: Yep.

Second thoughts, huh?

"We're getting OUT."

I guess it wasn't that bad.

Take another look, we're not TWINS.

What do you remember about Wilson?

Wilson Taking

Just sitting around talking.

Just lying around.

Show your whites.

Bow with grace.

Time Out

We look good, don't we?

I am so tired.

How should I know?

What is it?
